ABOUT RUTHIE DELK

Ruthie Delk grew up in Europe as a missionary kid and met her husband David while at Furman University, where she graduated with a degree in Special Education. Ruthie is passionate about helping women embrace the gospel in such a way that it captures their hearts, not just their minds. She enjoys watching movies, drinking sweet tea, and eating an assortment of cheap chocolates. She and her husband have recently relocated from Orlando, Florida to Greenville, SC where her husband David is the Executive Pastor of Grace Church. David and Ruthie have been married since 1988 and have three children and are transitioning into a new season in life as empty nesters.
